Thank you, Mr. Thompson.

Should I speak with anyone in the general Clerk's office today regarding my submission/filing?

Thanks for the follow~up.

Dear Mr. Thompson:

It was a pleasure speaking with you again today. Thank you for your additional assistance and clarification of the process regarding potential conditional admission today (allowing for timeliness of the amicus brief I separately filed and served in paper form today) and electronic submission of my filings following the anticipated issuance of an order granting admission on October 14th, retroactively effective to October 9th (and the electronic filings thereafter submitted would also be considered timely).

The UPS Next Day Air Tracking number for my original application package, delivered to the Clerk, Attn: Admissions Office, today at 9:28 AM, is: 1Z78W3080177621650.

For your information, if need be, the UPS Next Day Air Tracking number for my amicus* briefs and certificates package, delivered to the Clerk at 9:28 AM this morning as well, is: 1Z78W3080176580250.

I look forward to hearing from the Clerk's Office on a possible conditional approval today. Thank you, again, for the helpful information and kind assistance you have provided.

With kindest regards,

Wyn

Clerk, Supreme Court of the U.S., Admissions Office

Attn: Mr. Thompson

Re: Copy of Forthcoming Application Package of Robert Wyn Young (OH Bar #0064876)

Dear Mr. Thompson:

It was a pleasure speaking with you today. Thank you for your time and kind assistance.

Per your request, I am attaching a copy of the complete application package I am submitting for admission to the Supreme Court Bar and which is scheduled for delivery to the Admissions Office tomorrow, October 9th, by UPS Next Day Air, coming directly from the office of my sponsors at Wilenchik & Bartness, in Phoenix.

As we discussed, October 9th is the deadline for the filing of my amicus brief in Alex Emric Jones, et al., Petitioners v. Erica Lafferty, et al., Respondents, Case No. 25-268, which I separately and directly shipped to the U.S. Supreme Court Clerk today, October 8th, for delivery on October 9th. Thus, I will be seeking to both gain admission to the Supreme Court Bar and file my amicus brief on October 9th.

You outlined a process whereby I might gain conditionally~approved status if my application package, upon receipt, is found to be in order, that will enable me to timely file and serve counsel of record with my amicus brief on October 9th and that, when Court is in session again on October 14th, an order will issue granting my admission retroactively to October 9th, i.e., the (anticipated) date of receipt of my original application package.

Please let me know if my understanding of the process you outlined is correct, and please advise as to whether I will be granted electronic filing privileges on October 9th and following a conditional approval.

Again, I appreciate your assistance with this matter, and I look forward to hearing from you.

With kindest regards,

Wyn
